

CHAOS IN MOTION

Genre: Romantic Thriller

Dying to be a star.

Logline: An indie production is besieged by mayhem and murder when they try to make a serious film.

Val James is hired on for a writing retreat in an old manor house led by producer Drake Rayburn when Harlan, a B-list actor shows up to develop his writing not his dating skills.

Harlan's chaos starts when his obsessive sister-in-law Allissa shows up with her own happily ever after plans for Harlan. After Val stops Allissa's attempt at seducing Harlan, Allissa's jealousy boils over to rage.

Between Cynthia attention grabbing with explosive results and Harlan's break-up from his loveless marriage, Val's world is flipped upside down. Drake meanwhile, fans publicity with photos of Val and Harlan's growing attraction. All the while, Allissa obsession sharpens as she waits for her opportunity.

Allissa doesn't know she's on camera when she aims for Val, but shoots Cynthia instead. Then Val leaves before Harlan can tell her he really is a free man. Learning of his separation leaves Val heartbroken and certain nothing about Harlan is real, Val disappears.

Frantic, Harlan finally finds her and a whole new story begins.

"CHAOS IN MOTION" is a Three Stooges meets Something About Mary romance comedy that is a Red Inkworks Screenplay Competition finalist.
