Genre: Drama Thriller

LOGLINE: Valhalla meets Shambhala when Orlanda walks into Chinatown as a thief of souls kidnaps Captain Simms and tries to steal Peter's soul.

Fifteen years have passed. Caine is in Europe searching for Laura and Peter returns when Captain Simms disappears in a jailbreak.

Drawn to Chinatown, Orlanda finds Peter Caine. He is unsettled that she has a Shaolin tiger in her artwork. Wary, he decides to trust her; a good thing since they have been uniquely connected since early childhood.

To metaphysically reach Caine, Lo Si summons a third, Orlanda comes to the silent call. They successfully use an ancient form of traveling. Peter learns of a lethal adversary and Caine continues with new hope.

The effect of Peter and Orlanda being near each other begins to show. When Orlanda's place is robbed, her drawings of the Shaolin Tiger are missing. Peter shows his Dragon brand to Orlanda, and a mental link is formed.

When Peter and Kermit are caught in an explosion, it brings Orlanda back to herself with Lo Si beside her. She knows where Peter is.

His ch'i damaged, Orlanda cares for Peter while Lo Si searches for an antidote. Using the newfound traveling method, Caine and two Shaolin Masters arrive. With the 101st precinct, they find the pictures, the escaped prisoners, Captain Simms and her abductor.
