

REPLAY

Genre: Horror

An American Gem Finalist

LOGLINE: Three teens become the show when a malicious spirit is released from a horror dvd, but only one will survive.

Greg is bent and determined to trick his sister Lisa into watching a horror movie. When she is terrified and dragged to the basement with the life being choked from her, Lisa is only saved by Greg and his friend, Ward, who hit pause because they are awed at what they think is Lisa's acting in the horror movie.

They don't realize the hand choking Lisa dissolves as they go looking for her.

The breath jars into Lisa as she hits the floor, she notices similarities in her basement to the movie, terrified or not, she has to check. Finding blood splatters on the wall and floor as well as a freshly used can of red paint, Lisa's fury allows the spirit to enter her.

Thinking Lisa has run scared, Greg and Ward watch the movie. Lisa takes on the characteristics of the spirit and in disguise entices the boys to Greg's room by the actions on the movie. Totally suspicious of Greg and Lisa, Ward forces Greg to the basement to spring his own trap, not expecting Greg to get sliced up.

Ward now has to use all his wits just to survive long enough with a broken leg to get the spirit back into the movie. Until the police come and turn on the movie again.

Orlanda Szabo

204-482-8132

orlanda@orlandaszabo.com