

TIME AND AGAIN

Genre: Action/Adventure

Logline: An author and publicist's lives intertwine through the same dream until they are forced to admit they were destined to meet again.

In 1912, James daydreams in vivid colour of Murry's present day hectic publishers life in the future. While in the present Murry dreams in black and white of James' adventurous life from 1842-1912.

Murry's dreams begin with James' brush with death when he's almost shot for pick-pocketing and narrow escape from Scotland. And continues with James' saga in his sleep as James works west across America. From sailor to miner, ranch hand to railroad surveyor James finally finds his fortune as an old prospector in Nevada.

In Murry's time the elusive writer Carolyn, armed only with an old nurses journal and daydreams puts James' escapades on paper. After phone tag and near misses caused by Carolyn's jealous neighbour Max, destiny finally brings Murry and Carolyn together. While in 1912 James embarks on his journey home to Scotland.

“TIME & AGAIN” is an action adventure that dives into the metaphysical in the vein of Far & Away meets Dead Again meets Finding Forrester, and is a top 50 finalist in the Red Inkworks Screenwriting Competition.
